

Shaft lighting

Shaft lighting system with different protection classes for new systems or retrofits. Tailored solutions that are quick and cost-effective to install:

- Mark out the first light/wall mounting plate
- Drill
- Dowel into place
- Insert cable
- Move on to next light
- ...all done

IP 20 tubular light BENEFITS

- Quick installation of lights
- Quick laying of cables (no need for cable ducts, brackets, and so on)
- Easy-to-insert connecting cables
- Different all-in-one sets in accordance with IP 20, IP 40 or IP 65
- Components can be ordered individually IP 20 tubular light Moisture-proof light with 3-pin feed cable for IP 40 or IP 65 optional
- Pit control unit with, for example, emergency stop, light

Moisture-proof light with 3-pin feed cable for IP 40 or IP 65

DETAILS

All-in-one sets for different shaft heights in accordance with IP 20 (2-pin), IP 40 (3-pin) or IP 65 (3-pin)

Shaft lighting kits include the following:

Either

- IP 20 tubular lights with a protective tube (21 Watt)
- IP 40/IP 65 moisture-proof lighting (36 Watt) with a full plastic cover

Feed cable from machine room to shaft lighting (10 m)

Pluggable connection cables (2 m) from light to light

OPTIONAL

- Pit control unit with, for example, emergency stop, light sensor, emergency call button and socket, fully wired
- Tailored connecting cables from the machine room switch cabinet to the pit control unit (10 m + height of shaft)